

TABLE QUIZ

TEAM NAME: _____

IDENTIFY THE FOLLOWING POLYSEMOUS WORDS FROM THE CLUES GIVEN (words with more than one meaning):

No.	CLUE/MEANINGS	WORD
e.g.	A record of events during a voyage – To cut down an area of forest	Log
1	A former measure of land – To conceal something – The skin of an animal
2	A loaf of bread – A mixture of compressed clay & straw – A male swan
3	A flat rectangular frame with a hinged pin – To give way under pressure
4	To deceive in a playful way – A young person
5	A slab on which pottery is formed – a nocturnal mammal – To flutter one's eyelashes
6	A growth of fungi – A hollow container used for shaping – Soft loose earth
7	To enjoy oneself socially – A din – A type of bat used in some sports
8	A programme of entertainment – A medieval weapon – a beak
9	A North American porch with steps – To bend forwards & downwards
10	A machine used for moving objects – A type of bird – Stretch out one's neck to see something
11	A tree variety of the Northern hemisphere – A flat surface – A tool for smoothing wood
12	A mild viral infection - A noticeable temperature difference
13	A disagreeable person – To trim or cut away – A preserved plum
14	A sudden commotion, excitement or nervous hurry – A sudden gust of wind or snow
15	The hollow part inside a gun barrel – An uninteresting person – A steep-fronted wave
Your Score =

TABLE QUIZ

TEAM NAME: _____

IDENTIFY THE FOLLOWING POLYSEMOUS WORDS FROM THE CLUES GIVEN (words with more than one meaning):

No.	CLUE/MEANINGS	WORD
e.g.	A record of events during a voyage – To cut down an area of forest	Log
1	A former measure of land – To conceal something – The skin of an animal	Hide
2	A loaf of bread – A mixture of compressed clay & straw – A male swan	Cob
3	A flat rectangular frame with a hinged pin – To give way under pressure	Buckle
4	To deceive in a playful way – A young person	Kid
5	A slab on which pottery is formed – a nocturnal mammal – To flutter one's eyelashes	Bat
6	A growth of fungi – A hollow container used for shaping – Soft loose earth	Mould
7	To enjoy oneself socially – A din – A type of bat used in some sports	Racket
8	A programme of entertainment – A medieval weapon – a beak	Bill
9	A North American porch with steps – To bend forwards & downwards	Stoop
10	A machine used for moving objects – A type of bird – Stretch out one's neck to see something	Crane
11	A tree variety of the Northern hemisphere – A flat surface – A tool for smoothing wood	Plane
12	A mild viral infection - A noticeable temperature difference	Cold
13	A disagreeable person – To trim or cut away – A preserved plum	Prune
14	A sudden commotion, excitement or nervous hurry – A sudden gust of wind or snow	Flurry
15	The hollow part inside a gun barrel – An uninteresting person – A steep-fronted wave	Bore
Your Score =		